Reflection

“O Most Merciful Father; who has blessed the labors of the husbandman in the returns of the fruits of the earth; we give You humble and hearty thanks for this bounty; beseeching You to continue Your lovingkindness to us, that our land may still yield her increase, to Your glory and our comfort; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”- 1786 Proposed Book of Common Prayer

from Psalm 136

Minister (v.1-2): Give Thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever. Give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever.

CONFESSING OUR SIN

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Our God and Father: By nature, although we knew you as God, we did not honor you as God or give thanks to you, but we became futile in our thinking and our foolish hearts were darkened. We were thankless toward you because we would not worship you; we worshiped the creation instead. Even as believers who have received mercy from the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ, who have every reason for thanksgiving, we often grumble and complain. When we bring to you our requests, we at times do so with doubt and not with thanksgiving. As we survey the past year, we are laid low for our ingratitude. We seek fresh mercies in your Son. We thank you that your mercies in him are new every morning; great is your steadfast love and faithfulness. We thank you, our God, for Christ, your indescribable gift.
